Subject: Re: Please send me a copy of Wm. Branham's Biography Book

Dear Brother Robert Wilson,

Firstly, I would like to thank you and your team very much for Brother Branham's bio book and other publications which I received this morning (01.03.04). I was so excited when the package came through that I passed some of the booklets to sisters here at work. We have agreed to read and exchange them amongst ourselves, including some family and other friends in the ministry I attend to on Fridays. I believe in sharing anything which is good with other brothers and sisters.

Secondly, I was wondering how I can make a contribution to the ministry for the work that is been done? I think the website is awesome and very encouraging especially to people like myself who have just given their life to Christ. I have only been a Christian for approx 4 months and I am inspired by Brother Branham's life story. I will be getting baptized in the next 8 weeks and ask for the ministering brothers to pray for me.

God Bless you and the ministering brothers. Noleen

“But what can Christ do for me?”

Christ represents, not His law, not His justice; but He represents his mercy, His love. God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but has Eternal Life. Christ can give me love. Christ can give me Eternal Life. Christ can give me healing for my body. Christ can give me satisfaction. Christ can take away my gloom and give me happiness. The law couldn't do that. The prophets couldn't do that. But, "Hear ye Him." The church can't do it today. The world can't do it today. Your money can't do it today. Your friends can't do it today. So, "Hear ye Him." He's the only one can do it. [Hear Ye Him, San Jose, CA 59-0424E]

"The world is dying today for love. Christians today; we've got fine scholarly churches, wonderful buildings. But we got weak pulpits. There's something wrong. The congregation don't feel to one another like they used to. There's something missing. The world is looking to that, Christians. What we need today is a baptism of love for one another." [Hear Ye Him, San Jose, CA 59-0424E]

“Because Christ laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.” is our subject for April 2004. Please make time to tune-in

We covet your continued support, especially your prayers, which are more precious to us than gold, that we be led everyday by the Holy Ghost in this little effort.

May God Richly Bless you. Robert Wilson

Featured Questions and Answers

QUESTION:

I am a deacon and was helping out on communion, and a person came through the line to take communion, and I know that the person does not live a Christian life. This is the only time that the person took communion. That person comes to church about five times a year only. That person has never been baptized. So, my questions is should a deacon talk to that person, about taking communion? Although the scriptures is read and explained before communion (I Corinthians 11:23-24). Also do you have any quotes or scriptures on a person that's not a Christian taking communion?

ANSWER:

"I received the baptism of the Holy Ghost." Buckled about, an armor on, girded with Truth. Now, they were ready while they were eating. God wants you to dress up before you eat this COMMUNION. And, brother, before you can correctly eat it, you have to dress up. For, the Holy Spirit that's in your heart, will bring the Holy Spirit, lives on the Word of God." [Israel And The Church 53-0327].

"You know the day today. I went here not long ago to a place. And said, "We're going to have COMMUNION." And they took an old piece of loaf bread, and cut it up like this, in pieces, and passed it out amongst a bunch of people there, and everybody in the church taking COMMUNION. Brother, that's not right. Your heart's got to be right with God before you take COMMUNION. Isaiah prophesied of it in the 28th chapter and the 8th verse, if you want to look it up. He said, "The tables are full of vomit, all filthiness and uncleanness everywhere." He said, "Who can I teach doctrine? Who can I give understanding? Those that are weaned from the breast." Our little old baby's back here playing along. When we ought to be teaching somebody else the powers of God, we're still fussing about whether it's right to do this or that. "Tables full of vomit." [Israel And The Church 53-0327].

just in a few minutes.) when you're unworthily, you're guilty of the Blood and the Body of Jesus Christ. Let a man that takes that community live right before God--that takes that COMMUNION, rather, live right before God. Don't take it unworthily. That's just...Look. The Bible predicted in the last days that all the tables of God would be full of vomit. And there'd be nobody able to--to understand. Is that right? Look. I went not long ago into a great tabernacle. I wouldn't call the name; you all know it all well. You know what they had for COMMUNION? They taken loaf bread, life bread--light bread, and sliced it up. And a bunch of deacons, which the preacher said seven of them were drunkards... That's right. And every one of them, the whole bunch... You could see them as they went through the building talking to the people. And when the church was dismissed at the end, between the Sunday school and church, pretty near every one, pastor and all, went out and smoked cigarettes on the outside, and come back in and taken the Lord's COMMUNION. God said that He would not hold you guiltless for that, "That many are sick and weakly among you, and many are dead." That's right." [Questions And Answers 54-0103E.]

"You notice Paul here. Those Corinthians, they didn't get it. They went up there and even get drunk at the Lord's table. And they eat and drink, done everything wrong. Paul said, "When you come together, if a man's hungry, let him eat at home. But when you come together, tarry one for another." In other words, "Wait on one another." He said, "Now, here's a brother that I don't think ought to take the COMMUNION, but don't run up there and jerk him out. Have patience with him. After the service is over, and a time when he... come over to his house some night and sit down, say, "Brother, now, forgive me if I'm wrong. But I seen you down, the other day on the street, drunk," whatever he was doing, "out with some other lady that wasn't your wife, and you're taking COMMUNION. I love you, brother. Let--let's you and I pray over this thing and straighten it up." [Jubilee Year 54-1003E]

"Notice, Isaiah said in Isaiah 28:8; he said, "Precept must be upon precept," speaking of this day, "when the tables would be full of vomit," and so forth... every man... They take the COMMUNION today. They think because you take the COMMUNION that--that you're going to go to heaven. The Bible said ever who takes it unworthy is guilty of the death and body of the Lord Jesus Christ. Amen. That's a sacred order. I don't believe in all this what they call taking COMMUNION today. I went to a church not long ago, and they took a piece of loaf bread or light bread and cut it up in some pieces. And people down through there that drank, and gambled, and smoke, and cuss, and lie, a taking that, and think you'll go to heaven. Brother, you're damning your own soul by doing such a thing. No wonder the tables of the Lord is full of vomit. Sure." [The Results Of Decision 55-1008.]

"When we pull up... On the certain nights when we come together and take COMMUNION from the hands of the ministers, representing that we believe in the death, burial, and resurrection of the Lord Jesus, that that veil, His body that He was inveiled in, God... We take it as a representative we're dead to the things of the world, and been borned anew of the Spirit. And we walk with the body of Christ, all the believers together.

Ordination 62-1104E. And we believe that when we come together... He said, "Tarry one for another." In other words, "Wait on one another." The word "tarry" means "to wait." Wait on one another. Now, as it's been a custom to us, we take that Scripture in this way: that when we do this, that we just bow our heads, and the congregation prays for we pastors; we pastors pray for our congregation. That's how we wait on each other, by serving each other, by praying. You pray, "God, forgive my pastor. If there's anything in his life that he--they have done, You forgive them for it. Forgive them. They didn't mean to do it." And we come right back, the pastors praying for our congregation, "God, this is a little flock that You give us to watch over. If there's anything wrong in their life, take it away, Father, they--so that we can all stand together around the--fellowship around, knowing that we're coming here keeping a order of God, and taking the COMMUNION." I think it's a sweet time of fellowship." [Hebrews, Chapter Seven 57-0915E]

"See, she is the mother of blasphemous names, of lodges that the people has joined, and bring a reproach, live any way, wear shorts, women with bobbed hair, painted up, sing in choirs, smoke cigarettes, take COMMUNION, all kinds of filth of the world, and it's a stumbling block to the unbeliever." [Why I'm Against Organized Religion 62-1111E]

"Isaiah, the prophet, how he testified, prophesied of the end time. He said, "The whole body would become full of putrefied sores; every table would be full of vomit." Why, men and women today, they take the COMMUNION, living with two or three wives, or two or three husbands (Right.), all kinds of... smoking cigarettes, and all those things: coming into the church, taking COMMUNION." [The Evening Messenger 63-0116]

"And constantly when I talk to our--our women about bobbing their hair, and the ministers bawling me out about it; and about them wearing immoral clothes, these shorts and--and--and laying out like that, and--and carrying-on of that evil way; and about our men the way they were doing, smoking, and taking sociable drinks and--and everything; and then still calling themselves Christians, and taking COMMUNION at the table because that they belonged to an organization. Oh, it was just simply... They thought I'd blasphemed God. And did the women get better? They got worse, across the nation." [Standing In The Gap 63-0623M]

"Now, when we take this COMMUNION, it isn't just the thing say, "I'm coming up here and going to eat some bread, and I'll believe I'm a Christian." But, if you notice, the Bible said, "He that eateth and drinketh unworthily shall be guilty of the Blood and the Body of the Lord." See? You've got to live a life that--that--before the people, that--and before God and the people, that shows that you are--that you are sincere. [Communion 65-1212]

Excerpts from Our Guestbook, Testimony book & Eye Witness Accounts

🔴 March 22, 2004 - 11:14 AM Forest Farmer from United States.

"...Setting right back there, there's a man praying for a child, setting next there: got something wrong with its feet. That is right, isn't it? I don't know you; you're a stranger to me. But Mr. Farmer, do you believe that God's going to heal the child and make it well? If I'm a stranger to you, raise your hands like that. Is that what you was praying about? Is that what your name is and all about it? Just raise your hand. You have your request." [Only Believe, Chicago IL, 61-042]

(Below is the testimony of the crippled boy Brother Branham refers to in the quote above.)

My name is Forest Farmer. In 1961 we had the opportunity to hear about Bro William Branham's ministry. We were going to a Pentecostal church in a Chicago suburb, (Justice) when my father was told of a meeting soon to be.

They said some people thought Bro Branham was a prophet. He had a God given gift to call people out of the congregation, the Lord would show him their name, what was wrong with them, perhaps their address, or something else only they would know.

My father started to study the Bible for what a prophet is. Of course, he had to be correct 100% in his discernment, not 60-70% as some psychics can claim, because if it is God, God is never wrong.

I was born crippled in my feet. The only way I could walk comfortably was on the outside edges (with my soles facing each other). I was wearing special built shoes with braces in them. I don't remember hearing of the cost, only being a lad of 6 years old, but I was told they were very expensive.

My father started telling people, since Bro Branham prayed for the sick, he would take me there for prayer. Critics told my Dad it was mind reading, or mental telepathy.

A study of mind reading showed the reader would have to be close enough to the subject to see the reaction to key words, or mental telepathy a contact of clothes or an object the subject had possessed. So Dad said if he went, he would set so far away from the platform, neither of those would work! But meanwhile, he was praying, If Bro Branham was God's prophet, that God would let him call out Dad about my condition.

On April 27,1961 we went to the service at Mathers High School auditorium. We were setting near the back, a very few rows from the doors.

The first one Bro Branham called out was Dad. He said "setting right back there, there's a man praying for a child, setting next there; got something wrong with it's feet. That is right isn't it? I don't know you; you're a stranger to me.

But Mr. Farmer, do believe that God's going to heal the child and make it well? If I'm a stranger to you, raise your hands like that. Is that what you was praying about? Is that what your name is and all about it? Just raise your hand. You have your request."

Now it should be noted, I was not visible, but he stated setting next there. Dad was praying "if that's God's prophet let him call me out about Forest's feet." And then," you have your request". Oh, the infallibility of God!

Mom and Dad took the special shoes off me that night. About a week later, I came down the hallway of our house walking right, not on the edges of my feet. Since that time, I've worn dress shoes, work boots, hunting boots, cowboy boots, tennis shoes, Indian moccasins, flip-flops and run bare footed, but I've never wore special shoes again. In my sophomore year of high school the coach wanted me to run the 100-yard dash in competition. Thats a long way from being crippled.

But thats my God! Forest Farmer
